The Area

Nestled between the meandering Limpopo and Luvuvhu Rivers lies the Pafuri region, encompassing a vast expanse of 24,000 hectares (59,305 acres) within the northern sector of Kruger National Park. Within this remarkable area lies the Makuleke Concession, an ancestral homeland of the Makuleke people and unquestionably one of the most diverse and visually captivating regions within the entire Kruger National Park.

Accessible only to those fortunate enough to have access, the Makuleke concession is not open to the typical tourist. This unique tract of land rightfully belongs to the Makuleke community, marking a significant chapter in South Africa's history. In a triumphant turn of events, the Makuleke people, who were forcibly displaced from this land in 1968, successfully reclaimed their ancestral territory in 1998 after a protracted struggle. This region now stands as a testament to their resilience and heritage.

Embracing the wildest and most remote corners of the Kruger National Park, the Makuleke Concession boasts a rich tapestry of landscapes, offering a canvas of diverse vegetation, exceptional wildlife encounters, unrivaled birdwatching opportunities, and a treasury of folklore recounting the tales of early explorers and ancient civilizations.

The Accommodation

You'll call the seasonal bush camps home, at one with nature's sounds and smells, a place to recharge and refuel. A hot shower, delicious food, fireside stories and stargazing in comfort surrendering to sleep in comfort serenaded by whooping hyenas and stirring leaves.

The main area comprises a cozy seating arrangement beneath the sheltering canopy of a grand Jackal Berry Tree. Adjacent to this, there is a welcoming fire pit where guests can gather in the evening for sundowners and relaxation.

Each tent furnished with twin or king beds, charging facilities and clothes racks. Ensuite bathroom equipped with a flush toilet and wash basin, with direct access to a private outdoor hot bush shower.

The Schedule

We would like to offer you a glimpse into a typical day on our Yoga Safari and provide an overview of what you can expect during your days in the bush. While we prefer to maintain flexibility to accommodate the movement of animals, their behavior in various seasons, the interests of our guests, and external factors like weather, we still believe in providing a structured outline to give you an idea of your experience with us.

Your adventure begins early in the morning when we pick you up from your accommodation in Hoedspruit, where you spend the night before your safari. We embark on a scenic private game drive through Kruger National Park, traveling north into the Makuleke Concession, also known as Pafuri.

Even this drive through Kruger National Park offers glimpses of its diverse wildlife.

During our journey, we stop for a light breakfast in one of the Kruger Restcamps, providing a beautiful view.

After reaching our camp, you'll have time to settle into your tent, where you'll spend the next few days. At 15:00 h, High Tea awaits you before we set out on our first safari activity to explore the area.

Here's an overview of what a typical day might look like:

- 5:00 | Wake-up
- 5:15 | Morning Meditation
- 5:45 | Enjoy Coffee, Tea, Rusks, Muesli, Muffins, and Fruit
- 6:00 | Morning Walk: We set out early on foot from camp or drive to a different area for a walk
- 11:00 | Return to camp, with the specific time depending on the day. Shortly after our return, breakfast will be ready for you. Afterward, you have personal time to relax, enjoy the camp, read a book, or take a nap the melodies of birds and the rising sun. Once a day, whether within the camp or out in the wild, we practice yoga asana.

As John Lennon wisely said, 'Life is what happens when you are busy making other plans.' This philosophy is true for the bush as well, which is why we adapt our schedule to the ever-changing natural world around us.

Our Corporate Responsibility

With each Yoga Safari we share our love for yoga by donating to the Earth Child Project. With every donation we provide a child with weekly yoga for a year. The children learn to connect to themselves and each other through yoga and life skills.

We love offering our Yoga Safaris and educate about the African bush and wildlife. Nevertheless it does stand in conflict with the climate challenges we face today and we are well aware of that. This is why together with Greenpop we plant trees for every guest to offset the 14 tons of carbon footprint an international trip creates.
